

EXPERIMENTAL AND INNOVATIVE COURSES AND PROGRAMS

Community needs, teacher recommendations, the availability of new materials, state law, a Board or administrative analysis of student needs or suggestions from students may prompt the development of experimental or innovative courses or programs. Staff members may suggest the development of an experimental or innovative course or program by presenting a written proposal to the district administrator for Board approval.

LEGAL REF.:       Sections 120.12(14) Wisconsin Statutes
                          121.02
                          PI 8.01(2), Wisconsin Administrative Code

APPROVED:        January 30, 1995