

ACCELERATED PROGRAMMING

The Board strongly endorses the concept of students participating in accelerated programming.

Accelerated programming is an education process in which students are assisted/allowed to progress through a curriculum at a pace that effectively condenses the amount of time they need to spend in that curriculum. Acceleration is advantageous to students because it places them at levels of demonstrated competence.

APPROVED:            April 8, 1991

REVISED:            June 26, 1995