

CHANNELS OF COMMUNICATION

The Board wishes to provide means insofar as possible for the resolution of student-staff-Board relationship problems within the district. The Board directs the District Administrator to establish regular channels of communication among the respective groups with lines of responsibility, roles and power clearly set forth so that the schools may benefit from constructive problem solving based upon the contributions from each group.

APPROVED: June 26, 1995