

REPORTING STUDENT PROGRESS TO PARENTS

The only basis for the existence of schools is that those enrolled make progress toward the school's goals. Consequently, the Board directs the professional staff to devise and maintain a variety of reporting methods so that a parent(s)/guardian(s) may be appraised of his/her child's progress in light of school goals.

CROSS REF.: 345.2-Rule, Methods for Reporting Student Progress

APPROVED: January 18, 1993